

WINE ENTHUSIAST

92
POINTS
Editors' Choice

Domaine de la Citadelle 2019 Les Artemes Rosé (Luberon)

A rare Mourvèdre-dominant rosé blended with Grenache and Syrah, this richly concentrated sip offers concentrated raspberry and red-plum flavors. More than just a poolside quaffer, this substantial, mouth-filling rosé should appeal to lovers of crisp red wines. Delightful now, it should drink beautifully well past the summer.

— A.I. Published 9/1/2020

WINE ENTHUSIAST

92
POINTS
Editors' Choice

Domaine de la Citadelle 2019 Les Artemes Rosé (Luberon)

A rare Mourvèdre-dominant rosé blended with Grenache and Syrah, this richly concentrated sip offers concentrated raspberry and red-plum flavors. More than just a poolside quaffer, this substantial, mouth-filling rosé should appeal to lovers of crisp red wines. Delightful now, it should drink beautifully well past the summer.

— A.I. Published 9/1/2020

WINE ENTHUSIAST

92
POINTS
Editors' Choice

Domaine de la Citadelle 2019 Les Artemes Rosé (Luberon)

A rare Mourvèdre-dominant rosé blended with Grenache and Syrah, this richly concentrated sip offers concentrated raspberry and red-plum flavors. More than just a poolside quaffer, this substantial, mouth-filling rosé should appeal to lovers of crisp red wines. Delightful now, it should drink beautifully well past the summer.

— A.I. Published 9/1/2020