

Barroco

Named for the Baroque art and architectural style, this red wine evokes the beautiful landscape where the 90-year-old vines grow.

Grapes:

100% Cinsault

Vineyard & Winemaking:

The vines are planted in Ordovician schist soil on a southern facing slope at 300 meters altitude. The grapes are picked by hand. Traditional vinification by parcel, with maceration between 10 and 20 days. The wine is aged in concrete tanks.

Tasting Notes:

Brilliant ruby red in color, the wine opens with floral and red fruit aromas. These characteristics further develop on the palate, with fresh flavors of cherry, blackberry and plum interwoven with licorice, garrigue and well-balanced acidity.

Alcohol:

13.5% by volume

Production:

4,000 bottles

About Domaine de Cambis:

With panoramic views of the Rieuberlou river valley, the vineyards of Domaine de Cambis are set in a privileged location in the northern part of the Saint-Chinian appellation within France's Languedoc region. Nestled into the hillside, the vines are protected from strong northern winds and get maximum sun from the south-facing slopes. Elegant, full of flavor and well-structured, the wines of Domaine de Cambis reflect the area's unique microclimate and characteristic Ordovician era schist soils. Taking the lead from his parents, Martin Perolari brings a fresh perspective, crafting classically made wines that feel vibrant and modern.
